I Don't Remember What I Did This Morning

Dovid Kopel

Recently, I had the privilege of getting on a shiur with my Rebbe, HaRav Nochum Lansky שליט״א. I had sent him a few things I had written, for him to look over, and I asked him if he had seen them. He told me that he had, and that he greatly liked them. So I asked him, "Which one?" He smiled and said, "I don't remember what I did this morning."

I chuckled, and I was not upset in the slightest. He remembered that he liked it. That is enough for me. And honestly, it may be better that he did not remember which one. Had he remembered the piece, he probably would have had a few קושיות (unresolved questions) and טענות (claims) on it too.

My Rebbe has pushed me to start writing and publishing more, and coming from him, that means a lot. Not only because of what he said, but because of who he is and what he does. The amount of תורה he has taught to כלל ישראל is an inspiration for anyone. He recently moved to Lakewood, and somehow the number of shiurim seems to have tripled. I cannot manage to keep up! ברוך ה׳ — it's a great problem. May my Rebbe continue being מרביץ תורה (one who disseminates Torah) and inspiring all of us!
