The Kippah and Pop Culture

Dovid Kopel

I saw that a certain Yarmulka company was manufacturing a kippah with the text “6-7” on it. This is not a good thing. I’m sad to see the stupidity of pop-cultural references making their way into the קדושה that sets us apart from the rest of the nations. A כיפה should be something to remind us of our duty in the world and that Hashem is above us. This is the total opposite of that.

If I see this in my local ספרים store, I will strongly urge the storekeeper to get rid of them. This is not the message we want children to have. The גמרא in שבת that references the כיפה literally speaks of it increasing the כבוד ראש (honor of the head), not lightening it!
